

Detail of title page for: J. Goussier, 'De Boekzaal der geleerde Wereld', 1705. Print by Adolff van der Laan (1705). Print Room Collection. Object number RP-P-1905-5814.

Research Services newsletter

Moving the library collection | Colonial heritage & linked data | CIDOC 2024 | Library acquisitions

More storage for our growing library collection

In 2024, parts of the collection will be moved to an external depot in Amsterdam to accommodate continuing growth in the future. These books will therefore be temporarily unavailable for a short period of time. Availability will be kept up-to-date in the library catalog. The Research Library and Study Room Prints & Drawings remain open as usual during this period.

Questions? Contact us by sending an email to studiezaal@rijksmuseum.nl

Synchronizing colonial heritage

The Rijksmuseum has teamed up with other heritage institutions to create a datahub with the aim of improving accessibility to colonial heritage information. Read more about its core principles of standardizing information and keeping it up-to-date on our blog.

The Art of Information blog

Save the date! CIDOC 2024

We are pleased to announce that the Rijksmuseum will host the annual conference for ICOM's International Committee for Documentation (CIDOC), 11-15 November 2024. The conference will be preceded by the HackALOD, on 8-9 November 2024. Keep an eye on the website for more information on the call for papers, tickets, etc.

CIDOC 2024

Acquisitions library collection 2023

Every year, thousands of old and new books are added to the library collection. Curious to see which books were added last year?

Click on the button below to see an overview of all the acquisitions, including a wide range of topics related to art history, like science, religion, centuries-old art techniques and photography.

Library catalog

You are registered with the email address test@rijksmuseum.nl. Do you no longer wish to receive this newsletter? Click here to adjust your email preferences or unsubscribe.

Rijksmuseum Research Services | Website | studiezaal@rijksmuseum.nl

Library catalog
The Art of Information blog
Rijksstudio

